Employees of the West Virginia State Treasurer's Office, State Police or the agency from which the firearms are received are not eligible to bid on the firearms offered for sale at the auction.
- The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office reserves the right to add to or withdraw from the auction any items listed or not listed; to group individual lots into larger lots for sale; to subdivide lots into smaller lots for sale; or to sell all lots in bulk. Changes to terms and conditions, or additions and deletions of sale items may be announced by the Auctioneer before ordering the course of the auction.
- The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office reserves the right to accept or reject any or all bids. Bids may not be withdrawn after acceptance. All sales are final.
- All items are sold AS IS, WHERE IS, with no warranty, expressed or implied. The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office shall not be responsible for the correct description, authenticity, genuineness, or defect in any lot and makes no warranty in connection therewith. Any descriptions or representations are for identification purposes only and are not to be construed as a warranty of any type. It is the responsibility of the Buyer to have inspected thoroughly the merchandise and to have satisfied himself or herself as to its condition and value and to bid based upon that judgment solely.
- Security for purchases is the responsibility of the Buyer and begins immediately upon the sale of each lot. Removals are at the expense, liability and risk of the Buyer. The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office shall not be responsible for goods not removed immediately following the auction.
- Settlement must be made in full immediately upon the completion of the auction by certified check, personal check with bank letter, cash, Visa/MasterCard, Discover, or American Express. Buyer is solely responsible for paying applicable sales tax. Seller shall retain full security interest in all merchandise until full and complete payment is made to the WEST VIRGINIA STATE TREASURER'S OFFICE. Merchandise not paid for and removed immediately following the auction may be resold without notice. Non-payment will result in loss of future bidding privileges for the bidder.
- Upon the sale of each lot, the Auctioneer announces the final sale price and successful Buyer. All questions or disputes regarding Buyer, lot identity, price or quantity must be resolved immediately upon the sale of said lot. No changes or adjustments will be made at any later time. The record of the sale kept by the Auctioneer and sale clerk will be taken as final in the event of any dispute. All sales orders will be written in the name of the bidder. Winning bidder must have proof of identification. All persons attending preparation, inspection, sale or removal of merchandise assume all risks whatsoever of injury, damage or loss to person and property and specifically release The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office from liability therefore. The West Virginia State Treasurer's Office shall not be liable by reason of any defect in or condition of the premises on which the sale is held. The Buyer's receipt must be presented before items may be removed from the premises.
- The Buyer agrees that the act of submitting a bid shall constitute acceptance of each and every term and condition contained herein and of any additional terms and conditions which may be posted at the auction or which may be announced by the Auctioneer. The Buyer agrees that in any dispute between the Seller and the Buyer or between competing bidders arising in connection with any sale at the auction, the Auctioneer shall have the right but not the obligation to settle such dispute. Any person creating a disturbance will be escorted off the premises immediately. Moving items from the original location prior to sale is prohibited.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

An Exemption Certificate may be used only to claim exemption from tax upon a purchase of tangible personal property or services which will be used for an exempt purpose as stated on the front of this form.

A purchaser may file a blanket Exemption Certificate with the vendor to cover additional purchases of the same general type of property or service. However, each subsequent sales slip or purchase invoice evidencing a transaction covered by a blanket Exemption Certificate must show the purchaser's name, address and Business Registration Certificate Number for purposes of certification.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR PURCHASER

To purchase tangible personal property or services tax exempt, you must possess a valid Business Registration Certificate and you must properly complete this Exemption Certificate and present it to your supplier. To be properly completed, all entries on this Exemption Certificate must be filled in.

Your Business Registration Certificate (and any duplicates) may be suspended or revoked if you or someone acting on your behalf willfully issues this certificate for the purpose of making a tax exempt purchase of tangible personal property and/or services that is not used in a tax exempt manner (as stated on the front of this form).

When property or services are purchased tax exempt with an Exemption Certificate, but later used or consumed in a non exempt manner, the purchaser must pay Sales or Use Tax on the purchase price.

The willful issuance of a false or fraudulent Exemption Certificate with the intent to evade Sales or Use Tax is a misdemeanor.

Your misuse of this Certificate with intent to evade the Sales or Use Tax shall also result in your being subject to:

A penalty of fifty percent of the tax that would have been due had there not been a misuse of such certificate.

This is in addition to any other penalty imposed by the Law.

In the event you make false or fraudulent use of this Certificate with intent to evade the tax, you may be assessed for the tax at any time subsequent to such use.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VENDOR

At the time the property is sold or the service is rendered, you must obtain from your customer this Certificate, properly completed, (or a Direct Pay Permit number issued by the West Virginia Department of Tax and Revenue), or the sale will be deemed a taxable sale, unless the property or service sold is exempt per se from Sales Tax. Your failure to collect tax on such taxable sale will make you personally liable for the tax, plus penalties and interest.

Additional information may be required to substantiate that the sale was for exempt purposes. In order for this Certificate to be properly completed, it must be issued by a purchaser who has a valid Business Registration Certificate and must have all entries completed by the purchaser.

A timely received certificate which contains a material deficiency will be considered satisfactory if such deficiency is subsequently corrected.

You must keep this certificate for at least three years after the due date of the last return to which it relates, or the date when such return was filed, if later.

You must maintain a reasonable method of associating a particular exempt sale to a customer with the Exemption Certificate you have on file for such customer.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR VENDOR AND PURCHASER

If you, as vendor or as a purchaser, engage in any business activity in West Virginia without possessing a valid Business Registration Certificate (and you do not clearly qualify for an exemption), you shall be subject to a penalty in an amount not exceeding $100 for the first day on which such sales or purchases are made, plus an amount not exceeding $100 for each subsequent day on which such sales or purchases are made.

Please begin using this Certificate immediately.
